Front of House Volunteer Role Description

What is a Front of House Volunteer?

A Front of House (FOH) volunteer co-ordinates the smooth running of the reception area in the Wells and Mendip Museum by extending a warm and informative welcome to all visitors. This is a key role and our FOH volunteers must be happy working in a customer orientated environment.

What's in it for you?

- Becoming part of a friendly and dedicated team
- Meeting people from all walks of life and making new friends
- Improving your communication and customer service skills
- Enjoying new experiences and learning something new every day
- Adding experience to your CV

What's Involved?

1. Welcoming visitors to the Museum, and offering information and/or directions to exhibitions, Library, etc.
2. Encouraging visitors to become a “Friend of the Museum” by explaining all the benefits this offers
3. Recording numbers of visitors on a record sheet
4. Responding to any enquiries received
5. Taking payment for items purchased in the Museum shop and recording in sales book
6. Taking messages accurately and ensuring that they are passed to the relevant person
7. Sell tickets for certain events and record on relevant sales sheet
8. Making telephone calls on Museum’s behalf when requested
9. Restocking any relevant information leaflets
10. Assisting Shop Manager as required in making sure shop is tidy and clean and always ensuring shop security
11. Be aware of additional visitor facilities and make available accordingly, i.e. when exhibitions are on and the Museum library is open, torches, quizzes, etc.
12. Attend regular volunteer meetings whenever possible
13. Work in compliance with the Museum’s Health & Safety Policy at ALL times and ensuring the Museum is always “fit to open”

This role is purely voluntary and this arrangement is not meant to be a legally binding contract nor an employment contract

This role will suit someone who.... has an enthusiastic and friendly manner, enjoys meeting people, is happy to work as part of a team, but is equally happy to work alone when necessary, and someone who is keen to learn.
